

Positively Beautiful Camp

Summer 2019

Positively Beautiful Camp helps girls discover themselves by building their confidence and letting them experiment with style in no-pressure, non-judgmental small groups.

Girls will learn every aspect of producing a photo shoot of themselves: from style board creation, to location scouting, and everything in between. Throughout the week, the girls will engage in style sessions, make-up lessons and hair tutorials, and gives confidence-building tips to help girls feel fabulous.

On the final night of camp, a professional photographer will come to photograph the girls as they make their photo shoot vision come to life!
